

no "wet weather worry"

when you dry clothes electrically!

THREATENING WEATHER can't threaten a hitch in your washday schedule when you have an electric automatic clothes dryer. You can be sure you'll get your laundry out on time, and with the greatest of ease.

Indoor drying does away with the nuisance of fighting wind and rain to get your clothes hung up—and there's never a doubt about the time it takes them to dry. When you put them in an electric dryer, you use accurate, uniform heat which does the job thoroughly, turns out clothes that are clean, soft and fluffy.

In fair or stormy weather you'll smile right through washday, with an electric dryer on the job!

LAST WORD ON DRYING: of course—it's electric!

Chamber Board Okays Mailing Of Ballots

Nomination ballots calling for the election of 16 candidates as directors of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce were authorized mailed prior to November 8, according to action of the present nine-member board Monday afternoon.

From the 16 candidates chosen from the entire roster of membership in good standing, will be elected eight new directors at a final run-off election on November 22.

These eight new directors, plus six hold-over board members whose terms have not expired and one new director to be appointed by the newly-organized board will bring the total directorate to 15.

The enlarged board membership was authorized by an all-member ballot submitted in accordance with the recommendation of Henry W. Creeger, Chamber president, in order to broaden the scope of community representation.

INSTALLATION OF SCOUT OFFICIALS SLATED HERE

Installation of Capt. J. Y. Dannenberg, commander of the Long Beach Naval Base, as the new Harbor Area Chairman of Boy Scouts of America will be held in the Civic Auditorium here next Wednesday evening, November 14.

A. E. Thompson, general manager of the General Petroleum refinery here and a member of the Torrance Rotary club, will be installed as the vice-chairman of the district.

Walter Rolopp, president of the Los Angeles Area Council for BSA, will serve as installing officer.

Following a welcome by Mayor Bob Haggard, a program featuring Concert Violinist Edward Adiseno, and demonstrations by various Scout Troops will be given. Judge Ben Schienman, past president of the Los Angeles Area Council, will be the principal speaker.

Featured also will be three council awards and the awarding of the Order of Merit and one national award of the Silver Star.

Seating at the dinner meeting will be by reservation only.

Two Torrance Navy Vets Back From Korean War

Returning to Torrance this week after a 14-month stay in Korean waters aboard the USS Diphda, an ammunition ship, were Lt. Comdr. T. B. Moulter, USN, of 1222 Portola avenue and Merton R. Stiles, quarter-master first class, of 17031 Crenshaw boulevard.

Lt. Commander Moulter has been executive officer aboard the ship. He will be assigned to shore duty in Rhode Island following a leave with his family in Torrance.

While in Korea the ship was responsible for the supplying of ammunition to ships of the fleet and was in direct support of the Marine air units based ashore in Korea, according to Navy reports.

For its part in the successful evacuation of Hungnam, the ship was among the United Nations ships which received a commendation from the Secretary of the Navy.

During its tour in the combat zone the ship steamed 42,000 miles and supplied 38,640 long tons of ammunition to the United Nations forces, according to Navy statistics.
